Numerical Simulations of Domain Wall Collapse DAVID GARFIN-KLE, Oakland University — Numerical simulations are performed of the gravitational collapse of several types of thick domain walls. In each case, the properties of the resulting black holes are found.

David Garfinkle
Oakland University