The American Physical Society

Session 9: Career Panel B — Welcome to the 2021 CUWIP Career Panel B - planned in tune with the primary goal of the CUWIP conference to help undergraduate women continue in physics. It is intended to be a welcoming and informal environment for all, including undergraduate women and gender minorities. The Panel will host an interactive session with panelists from various fields and academic backgrounds and a diverse set of experiences. They will talk about their careers and what led each of them to their respective career paths. Bring your career questions as well as questions that pertain to challenges faced by women as they progress and succeed in their careers and lives. Panelists: Alison Yates, Jessica Fagerstrom (Northwest Medical Physics Center), Sabrina Hong (Google), and Zahra Hussaini.
