Abstract for an Invited Paper for the MAR11 Meeting of the American Physical Society

Panel discussion on the Blewett Scholarship, and how it helps young women achieve career/family balance.¹
SHERRY YENNELLO, Texas A&M University

This panel discussion will be preceded by talks by three women who have had career interruptions due to family reasons and have restarted their research careers with some assistance from a Blewett Scholarship. They will discuss their experience balancing career and family. Questions from the audience will be encouraged. This session should provide inspiration for young women to pursue their passions and motivation for department chairs to be flexible and accommodating of career/family balance.

¹The Blewett Scholarship program is administered by CSWP.
