Workshop 6C: LA Alliance Resources Available¹ VALERIE OTERO, University of Colorado Boulder — The Learning Assistant Alliance is a coalition of universities with a common interest in using LAs as a catalyst for educational change and teacher recruitment in university and two-year college settings. The LA Alliance Web Portal has a variety of tools available to support new and mature programs. In this workshop participants will learn about: Assessment and Research Tools for assessing student outcomes and generating reports, the Program Implementation Toolkit including pedagogy course materials, slides, and general program elements, the Program and Participant Finder to look for programs like yours, the LA Central Program Administration Tool for broad scale program administration and workflow management. Where to find other resources such as data slides, published papers, and presentations will be discussed.

¹Supported in part by NSF Grant 1557351 and the University of Colorado Boulder
