TOURS OF FACILITIES — The tours of local research facilities will take place immediately after lunch on Friday afternoon. The facilities that will be toured are the National High Magnetic Field Laboratory, The High Performance Materials Institute, and The Center for Plasma Science and Technology. Each tour will last between 45 minutes and an hour. Those taking the tours are free to tour one or all of the facilities, but everyone is reminded that the last bus will leave Innovation Park (the site of the three facilities) at 17:00. The first bus can be boarded in front of the hotel beginning at 13:30. The last bus will leave Innovation Park at 17:00 to return to the hotel.
