W7 - Physics... “There’s an App for That!” KENRIC DAVIES,
Sherman High School — Are you and your science program looking to incorporate more technology into your lessons? This workshop will contain hands-on ways to include iPods (or iPads) and physics related apps into the classroom. Topics will include the Physics of Angry Birds, Video Analysis, and circuits with iCircuit. Participants will walk away with a CD containing fully-editable activities to go with each app.
