

Abstract Submitted for the APR16 Meeting of The American Physical Society

Exploring the SCOAP<sup>3</sup> Research Contributions of the United States MATTHEW MARSTELLER, Carnegie Mellon University — The Sponsoring Consortium for Open Access Publishing in Particle Physics (SCOAP<sup>3</sup>) is a successful global partnership of libraries, funding agencies and research centers. This presentation will inform the audience about SCOAP<sup>3</sup> and also delve into descriptive statistics of the United States intellectual contribution to particle physics via these open access journals. Exploration of the SCOAP<sup>3</sup> particle physics literature using a variety of metrics tools such as Web of Science<sup>TM</sup>, InCites<sup>TM</sup>, Scopus® and SciVal will be shared. ORA or Sci2 will be used to visualize author collaboration networks.
